

FOREVER FREE

The great beacon of hope has haunted ye,
Those words Lincoln wrote, "Forever Free",
Yet still ye are bound up in chains
Invisible though they may be
For o'er a hundred years
From sea to shining sea
I have a dream, so strange, so true
Those words Lincoln wrote
We shall now renew
So let us move on hand in hand
Together we go black and white,
Let no one tear apart
These states we shall unite
We are free, free We are free,
T'is plain for all to see that
We shall be Forever Free
Outsiders ye roam forlorn in your own land
This place ye call home too long have ye been banned
But now there shall blow winds of change
To scatter the ashes of hate

The promise will be fulfilled before it is too late

To be free, free,

We are free,

T'is plain for all to see that

We shall be Forever Free

Where there is faith, Ye will find hope

The blessing of this nation is how well we always cope

We shall move forward into the Promised Land

The innocence of children shall help us understand

Choir: We are free, free

We are free,

T'is plain for all to see that

We shall be Forever Free

Forever Free

Forever Free

Duet : T'is plain for all to see that

We shall be Forever Free
